

Tang Jia

Tang Jia is currently Associate Cello Principal with the Singapore Chinese Orchestra. She graduated with full scholarship from the Yong Siew Toh Conservatory of Music in Cello Performance, after which she received her Masters Degree from the Tasmania Conservatory of Music.

Tang Jia is an active cellist in various types of music such as classical music, musicals, operas, jazz, pop and so on. She was a regular cellist with the Tasmania Symphony Orchestra and Orchestra Victoria. Recently she was invited to play at Kit Chan's "Spellbound" tour and "Homecoming" concert. She was also invited to play at Singapore's favorite "Xin Yao" concert.

Tang Jia is a passionate and popular teacher to school students and cello lovers. She has inspired many teenagers to play the cello as well as pursue music. She is also a recording artist. You can hear her cello music on radio, in movie soundtracks and even in gospel music.